

Working with Young People? Free Training Course

Young People and Money has been developed by the Financial Services Authority (FSA) in partnership with Citizens Advice and leading youth charity, Fairbridge. Produced with young people in mind, specifically those not in education, employment or training (NEET), the programme aims to empower young people by improving their financial awareness and capability.

Sponsored by the FSA, Young People and Money is a free, one day training course that delivers financial capability training to those working with 'NEET' young people. The course is designed to improve their confidence by equipping them better to support their young people in becoming financially capable.

Topics covered on the Young People and Money training day include:

-  The psychology of young people and money
-  Income, budgeting and banking
-  Credit
-  Skills to engage young people in financial matters
-  Debt management
